This Affiliate Contract (this “Contract” or this “Affiliate Contract”), is entered into and made effective as of February 11th, 2026 (the “Effective Date”), by and between:

(1) Meta Football League, a company registered in France under SIRET 92220026600018, located at 9 rue des Colonnes, 75002 Paris, FRANCE represented by Mathurin Blouin (CEO) hereafter known as the “Customer” and

(2) Jack Peachman a Sole Trader registered in 2A Harland Road, London, SE12 0JA, Operating as WorkTheSpace hereafter known as the “Affiliate”

Whereas:

Now therefore, in consideration of the foregoing, and the mutual promises herein contained, the parties hereby agree as follows:

Description of Services

The Affiliate shall market, promote, and direct potential customers to the products and/or services (the "Services") of the Customer using specific URLs provided by the Customer. The Affiliate will use its best efforts to actively and effectively advertise, market and promote the Services as widely and aggressively as possible.

Additionally, the Affiliate commits to delivering services outlined below:

- MFL live stream(s) or video content(s) (weekly, length ~1h)
- 4 Twitter posts about MFL (monthly)

The Affiliate must at all times incorporate Customer mentions and use its unique affiliate tracking link into all publications. All content must be new and unpublished. The Affiliate further undertakes not to remove these publications from their profiles or social channels for a minimum of one year, barring force majeure or professional activity abandonment. The Affiliate also agrees to maximum one (1) round of edits and republish within seven (7) days of publishing if the content falls short of the Agreement or adversely affects the Customer's image. Any failure to comply with the above can lead to Agreement breach and impact payments.

Commission

The Customer shall pay the Affiliate a commission based on the “Net Revenue” generated from new customers directed by the Affiliate's efforts. The "Net Revenue" shall be defined as: the monthly purchases by customers directed by the Affiliate made on the Primary Market, less any chargebacks (credit card refunds), secondary sales (user-to-users), credits given to customers, processing fees, and sales tax. A cap will be applied to the "Net Revenue" calculation, excluding revenue from users after one year of their account creation on the MFL platform.

The commission rate will be a percentage of Net Revenue. This percentage will be defined each month based on the number of new paying users and brought by the Affiliate ("New Users"), as shown in Table 1 below.

New Users	Percentage of Net Revenue
0	5%
1-2	10%
3-5	12%
6-20	15%

Table 1

Commission will not be paid on sales taxes, duties, or any other charges related to the sale of the Services. No commission shall be payable for any transactions or activity occurring after the expiration or termination of this contract.

Minimum Guarantee Commission

The Affiliate will be guaranteed a minimum commission of 600€/month during the duration of this contract. In the event the Affiliate is eligible for a partial month of commission (e.g., if the contract begins or ends mid-month), the guaranteed commission will be prorated based on the number of days in that month.

Duration of the Contract

This Agreement shall begin on February 11th, 2026, and shall remain in effect indefinitely. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing one month's written notice to the other party. The Agreement may also be amended or updated upon mutual agreement via email.

Payment Terms and Schedule

The commission will be paid on a monthly basis, within 30 days following the reception of the Affiliate invoice. The Affiliate shall receive a monthly report detailing the Net Revenue and calculation of the commission.

Content Creator Contract Terms and Conditions

1. Intellectual Property Rights

Retained rights

Each party will retain all right, title, and interest in and to its own Pre-Existing Intellectual Property irrespective of any disclosure of such Pre Existing Intellectual Property to the other party, subject to any licenses granted herein.

Pre-existing intellectual property

Content Creator will not use any Content Creator or third party Pre-Existing Intellectual Property in connection with this Contract unless Content Creator has the right to use it for Customer's benefit. If Content Creator is not the owner of such Pre Existing Intellectual Property, Content Creator will obtain from the owner any rights as are necessary to enable Content Creator to comply with this Contract.

Content Creator grants Customer a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide license in Content Creator and third party Pre-Existing Intellectual Property, to the extent such Pre-Existing Intellectual Property is incorporated into any Deliverable, for the duration of this Agreement. This license includes the right to use, reproduce, display, and distribute the Deliverable in accordance with the license terms set forth in the "Ownership of deliverables" section herein. Upon termination, Customer's rights to Content Creator's Pre-Existing Intellectual Property shall cease, subject to the same six (6) month wind-down period for already-published Deliverables.

Content Creator will not incorporate any materials from a third party, including Open Source or freeware, into any Deliverable unless (i) Content Creator clearly identifies the specific elements of the Deliverable to contain third party materials, (ii) Content Creator identifies the corresponding third party licenses and any restrictions on use thereof, and (ii) approval is given by Customer in writing.

Content Creator represents, warrants and covenants that Content Creator has complied and shall continue to comply with all third party licenses (including all open source licenses) associated with any software components that will be included in the Deliverables or any other materials supplied by Content Creator.

Content Creator shall indemnify Customer against any losses and liability incurred by Customer due to failure of Content Creator to meet any of the requirements in any of the third party licenses.

Ownership of deliverables

Content Creator shall retain all right, title, and interest in and to the Deliverables produced under this Agreement, including all Intellectual Property Rights related thereto. Content Creator hereby grants Customer a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide license to use, reproduce, display, and distribute the Deliverables for marketing and promotional purposes in connection with the MFL brand. This license shall remain in effect for the duration of this Agreement and shall terminate upon expiration or termination of this Agreement. Content Creator shall deliver all produced content (including but not limited to videos, code, and images) to the Customer in a downloadable and accessible format.

Content Creator agrees that Customer shall have the right to use the Deliverables in accordance with the license granted herein, without claim on the part of Content Creator for additional compensation beyond the commission and minimum guarantee set forth in this Agreement, and without challenge, opposition or interference by Content Creator for any use falling within the scope of the license.

Customer shall have the non-exclusive, worldwide right to use, reproduce, display, and distribute the Deliverables produced under this Agreement on the MFL website, MFL social media channels, and organic promotional materials for the duration of this Agreement. Any use of the Deliverables in paid advertising, edited or modified versions of the original content, or any media or context outside of the original publications shall require the prior written approval of Content Creator, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld and to be provided within seven (7) business days of the request. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, Customer's license to use the Deliverables shall cease, provided that any Deliverables already published on Customer's channels at the time of termination may remain live for a period of six (6) months following termination.

Content Creator will reasonably cooperate with Customer in any efforts to enforce or defend the license rights granted under this Agreement in any country.

No rights to customer intellectual property

Except for the limited license to use materials provided by Customer as may be necessary in order for Content Creator to perform Services under this Contract, Content Creator is granted no right, title, or interest in any Customer Intellectual Property.

10. Miscellaneous

Assignment

Content Creator shall not assign any rights of this Contract or any other written instrument related to Services and/or Deliverables provided under this Contract, and no assignment shall be binding without the prior written consent of Customer. Subject to the foregoing, this Contract will be binding upon the Parties' heirs, executors, successors and assigns.

Governing law

The Parties shall make a good-faith effort to amicably settle by mutual agreement any dispute that may arise between them under this Contract. The foregoing requirement will not preclude either Party from seeking injunctive relief as it deems necessary to protect its own interests. This Contract will be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of France, excluding its choice of law rules.

Severability

The Parties recognize the uncertainty of the law with respect to certain provisions of this Contract and expressly stipulate that this Contract will be construed in a manner that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent possible under applicable law.

To the extent that any provisions of this Contract are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such provisions will be deleted from this Contract or modified so as to make them enforceable and the validity and enforceability of the remainder of such provisions and of this Contract will be unaffected.

Independent contractor

Nothing contained in this Contract shall create an employer and employee relationship, a master and servant relationship, or a principal and agent relationship between Content Creator and Customer. Customer and Content Creator agree that Content Creator is, and at all times during this Contract shall remain, an independent contractor.

Force majeure

Neither Party shall be liable for any failure to perform under this Contract when such failure is due to causes beyond that Party's reasonable control, including, but not limited to, acts of state or governmental authorities, acts of terrorism, natural catastrophe, fire, storm, flood, earthquakes, accident, and prolonged shortage of energy.

In the event of such delay the date of delivery or time for completion will be extended by a period of time reasonably necessary by both Content Creator and Customer. If the delay remains in effect for a period in excess of thirty days, Customer may terminate this Contract immediately upon written notice to Content Creator.

Entire contract

This document and all attached or incorporated documents contains the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes any previous understanding, commitments or agreements, oral or written. Further, this Contract may not be modified, changed, or otherwise altered in any respect except by a written agreement signed by both Parties.
