Description of Services

The Affiliate shall market, promote, and direct potential customers to the products and/or services (the "Services") of the Customer using specific URLs provided by the Customer. The Affiliate will use its best efforts to actively and effectively advertise, market and promote the Services as widely and aggressively as possible.

Additionally, the Affiliate commits to delivering services outlined below:

The Affiliate agrees to ensure that all videos, streams, and posts on the channel are focused solely on MFL, including gameplay, updates, tutorials, community engagement, and promotional content. No content featuring or promoting competitors, or other football management games shall be published on the channel.

The Affiliate further undertakes not to remove these publications from their profiles or social channels for a minimum of one year, barring force majeure or professional activity abandonment. The Affiliate also agrees to maximum one (1) round of edits and republish within seven (7) days of publishing if the content falls short of the Agreement or adversely affects the Customer's image. Any failure to comply with the above can lead to Agreement breach and impact payments.

Commission

The Customer shall pay the Affiliate a commission based on the “Net Revenue” generated from new customers directed by the Affiliate's efforts. The "Net Revenue" shall be defined as: the monthly purchases by customers directed by the Affiliate made on the Primary Market, less any chargebacks (credit card refunds), secondary sales (user-to-users), credits given to customers, processing fees, and sales tax. A cap will be applied to the "Net Revenue" calculation, excluding revenue from users after one year of their account creation on the MFL platform.

The commission rate will be a percentage of Net Revenue. This percentage will be defined each month based on the number of new paying users and brought by the Affiliate (“New Users”), as shown in Table 1 below.

New Users	Percentage of Net Revenue
0	5%
1-10	10%
11-20	12%
21+	15%

In the event the Affiliate is eligible for a partial month of commission (e.g., if the contract begins or ends mid-month), the guaranteed commission will be prorated based on the number of days in that month.

3. Conflict of Interest

Affiliate represents that its execution and performance of this Contract does not conflict with or breach any contractual, fiduciary or other duty or obligation to which Affiliate is bound. Affiliate shall not accept any work from Customer or work from any other business organizations or entities which would create an actual or potential conflict of interest for the Affiliate or which is detrimental to Customer's business interests.

4. Termination

Rights to Terminate

1. Customer may terminate this Contract and/or any open projects immediately for cause if the Affiliate fails to perform any of its obligations under this Contract or if Affiliate breaches any of the warranties provided herein and fails to correct such failure or breach to Customer's reasonable satisfaction within ten (10) calendar days (unless extended by Customer) following notice by Customer. Customer shall be entitled to seek and obtain all remedies available to it in law or in equity.

2. Upon termination of any project or work given Affiliate hereunder, Affiliate will immediately provide Customer with any and all work in progress or completed prior to the termination date. As Customer's sole obligation to Affiliate resulting from such termination, Customer will pay Affiliate an equitable amount as determined by Customer for the partially completed work in progress and the agreed to price for the completed Services and/or Deliverables provided and accepted prior to the date of termination.

3. Upon termination or expiration of this Contract or a project performed by Affiliate hereunder, whichever occurs first, Affiliate shall promptly return to Customer all materials and or tools provided by Customer under this Contract and all Confidential Information provided by Customer to Affiliate.

6. it has all rights to enter into this Contract and there are no impediments to Affiliate's execution of this Contract or Affiliate's performance of Services hereunder.

6. Limitation of Liability

Except as set forth in this section below, in no event will either party be liable for any special, indirect, incidental, or consequential damages nor for loss of data, profits or revenue, cost of capital or downtime costs, nor for any exemplary or punitive damages, arising from any claim or action, incidental or collateral to, or directly or indirectly related to or in any way connected with, the subject matter of the agreement, whether such damages are based on contract, tort, statute, implied duties or obligations, or other legal theory, even if advised of the possibility of such damages.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any purported limitation or waiver of liability shall not apply to the contractor's obligation under the indemnification or confidential information sections of this agreement or either party's liability to the other for personal injury, death, or physical damage to property claims.

7. Inspection and Acceptance

Non-conforming services and deliverables

If any of the Services performed or Deliverables delivered do not conform to specified requirements, Customer may require the Affiliate to perform the Services again or replace or repair the non conforming Deliverables in order to bring them into full conformity with the requirements, at Affiliate's sole cost and expense.

When the defects in Services and/or Deliverables cannot be corrected by re-performance, Customer may: (a) require Affiliate to take necessary action, at Affiliate's own cost and expense, to ensure that future performance conforms to the requirements and/or (b) reduce any price payable under the applicable project to reflect the reduced value of the Services performed and/or Deliverables delivered by Affiliate and accepted by Customer.

If Affiliate fails to promptly conform the Services and/or Deliverables to defined requirements or specifications, or take action deemed by Customer to be sufficient to ensure future performance of the project in full conformity with such requirements, Customer may (a) by contract or otherwise, perform the services or subcontract to another Affiliate to perform the Services and reduce any price payable by an amount that is equitable under the circumstances and charge the difference in re-procurement costs back to Affiliate and/or (b) terminate the project and/or this Contract for default.

8. Insurance

Affiliate shall maintain adequate insurance coverage and minimum coverage limits for its business as required by any applicable law or regulation, including Workers' Compensation insurance as required by any applicable law or regulation, or otherwise as determined by Affiliate in its reasonable discretion. Affiliate's lack of insurance coverage shall limit any liability Affiliate may have under this Contract.

10. Miscellaneous

Assignment

Affiliate shall not assign any rights of this Contract or any other written instrument related to Services and/or Deliverables provided under this Contract, and no assignment shall be binding without the prior written consent of Customer. Subject to the foregoing, this Contract will be binding upon the Parties' heirs, executors, successors and assigns.

Governing law

The Parties shall make a good-faith effort to amicably settle by mutual agreement any dispute that may arise between them under this Contract. The foregoing requirement will not preclude either Party from seeking injunctive relief as it deems necessary to protect its own interests. This Contract will be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of France, excluding its choice of law rules.

Severability

The Parties recognize the uncertainty of the law with respect to certain provisions of this Contract and expressly stipulate that this Contract will be construed in a manner that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent possible under applicable law.

To the extent that any provisions of this Contract are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such provisions will be deleted from this Contract or modified so as to make them enforceable and the validity and enforceability of the remainder of such provisions and of this Contract will be unaffected.

Independent contractor

Nothing contained in this Contract shall create an employer and employee relationship, a master and servant relationship, or a principal and agent relationship between Affiliate and Customer. Customer and Affiliate agree that Affiliate is, and at all times during this Contract shall remain, an independent contractor.

Force majeure

Neither Party shall be liable for any failure to perform under this Contract when such failure is due to causes beyond that Party's reasonable control, including, but not limited to, acts of state or governmental authorities, acts of terrorism, natural catastrophe, fire, storm, flood, earthquakes, accident, and prolonged shortage of energy.

In the event of such delay the date of delivery or time for completion will be extended by a period of time reasonably necessary by both Affiliate and Customer. If the delay remains in effect for a period in excess of thirty days, Customer may terminate this Contract immediately upon written notice to Affiliate.

Entire contract

This document and all attached or incorporated documents contains the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes any previous understanding, commitments or agreements, oral or written. Further, this Contract may not be modified, changed, or otherwise altered in any respect except by a written agreement signed by both Parties.
