1. Intellectual Property Rights

Retained rights

Each Party shall retain all right, title, and interest in and to its own pre-existing intellectual property ("Pre-Existing IP"), irrespective of any disclosure of such Pre-Existing IP to the other Party, subject to any licenses granted herein.

Pre-existing intellectual property

Content Creator will not use any Content Creator or third party Pre-Existing Intellectual Property in connection with this Contract unless Content Creator has the right to use it for Customer's benefit. If Content Creator is not the owner of such Pre Existing Intellectual Property, Content Creator will obtain from the owner any rights as are necessary to enable Content Creator to comply with this Contract.

Any pre-existing intellectual property of the Creator (including but not limited to artistic direction, editing style, templates, graphic elements, scripts, or other materials created before this Agreement) remains the exclusive property of the Creator.

The Client is granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to use such pre-existing intellectual property only for the specific project covered by this Agreement, and only for a period of 12 months from delivery.

The Client shall not modify, resell, sub-licence, or use it for any other purpose without the Creator's prior written consent.

Content Creator will not incorporate any materials from a third party, including Open Source or freeware, into any Deliverable unless (i) Content Creator clearly identifies the specific elements of the Deliverable to contain third party materials, (ii) Content Creator identifies the corresponding third party licenses and any restrictions on use thereof, and (ii) approval is given by Customer in writing.

Content Creator represents, warrants and covenants that Content Creator has complied and shall continue to comply with all third party licenses (including all open source licenses) associated with any software components that will be included in the Deliverables or any other materials supplied by Content Creator.

MB MB

Content Creator shall indemnify Customer against any losses and liability incurred by Customer due to failure of Content Creator to meet any of the requirements in any of the third party licenses.

Ownership of deliverables

Subject to Content Creator and third party rights in Pre Existing Intellectual Property, all Deliverables, whether complete or in progress, and all Intellectual Property Rights related thereto shall belong to Customer, and Content Creator hereby assigns such rights to Customer. Content Creator shall deliver all produced content (including but not limited to videos, code, and images) to the Customer in a downloadable and accessible format.

The Content Creator retains ownership of all rights, including copyrights and moral rights, in the Deliverables. The Content Creator grants the Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to use the Deliverables for the purposes agreed in this Agreement, for a period of 12 months from delivery, unless otherwise agreed in writing. Any further use, modification, or transfer of the Deliverables will require the Content Creator's prior written consent and may be subject to additional compensation.

No rights to customer intellectual property

Except for the limited license to use materials provided by Customer as may be necessary in order for Content Creator to perform Services under this Contract, Content Creator is granted no right, title, or interest in any Customer Intellectual Property.

2. Confidentiality

Confidential information

For purposes of this Contract, "Confidential Information" shall mean information or material proprietary to a Party or designated as confidential by such Party (the "Disclosing Party"), as well as information about which a Party (the "Receiving Party") obtains knowledge or access, through or as a result of this Contract (including information conceived, originated, discovered or developed in whole or in part by Content Creator hereunder).

Confidential Information does not include:
a) information that is or becomes publicly known without restriction and without breach of this Contract or that is generally employed by the trade at or after the time the Receiving Party first learns of such information;
b) generic information or knowledge which the Receiving Party would have learned in the course of similar employment or work elsewhere in the trade;
c) information the Receiving Party lawfully receives from a third party without restriction on disclosure and without breach of a nondisclosure obligation;

d) information the Receiving Party rightfully knew prior to receiving such information from the Disclosing Party to the extent such knowledge was not subject to restrictions on further disclosure;
or (e) information the Receiving Party develops independent of any information originating from the Disclosing Party.

Customer confidential information

The following constitute Confidential Information of Customer and should not be disclosed to third parties: the Deliverables, discoveries, ideas, concepts, software in various states of development, designs, drawings, specifications, techniques, models, data, source code, source files and documentation, object code, documentation, diagrams, flow charts, research, development, processes, procedures, "know-how", marketing techniques and materials, marketing and development plans, customer names and other information related to customers, price lists, pricing policies and financial information, this Contract and the existence of this Contract, and any work assignments authorized or issued under this Contract.

Content Creator will not use Customer's name, likeness, or logo (Customer's "Identity"), without Customer's prior written consent, to include use or reference to Customer's Identity, directly or indirectly, in conjunction with any other clients or potential clients, any client lists, advertisements, news releases or releases to any professional or trade publications.

Non-Disclosure

The Parties hereby agree that during the term hereof and at all times thereafter, and except as specifically permitted herein or in a separate writing signed by the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall not use, commercialize or disclose Confidential Information to any person or entity.

Upon termination, or at any time upon the request of the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall return to the Disclosing Party all Confidential Information, including all notes, data, reference materials, sketches, drawings, memorandums, documentations and records which in any way incorporate Confidential Information.

Right to disclose

With respect to any information, knowledge, or data disclosed to Customer by the Content Creator, the Content Creator warrants that the Content Creator has full and unrestricted right to disclose the same without incurring legal liability to others, and that Customer shall have full and unrestricted right to use and publish the same as it may see fit.

Any restrictions on Customer's use of any information, knowledge, or data disclosed by Content Creator must be made known to Customer as soon as practicable and in any event agreed upon before the start of any work.

3. Conflict of Interest

Content Creator represents that its execution and performance of this Contract does not conflict with or breach any contractual, fiduciary or other duty or obligation to which Content Creator is bound. Content Creator shall not accept any work from Customer or work from any other business organizations or entities which would create an actual or potential conflict of interest for the Content Creator or which is detrimental to Customer's business interests.

This clause applies only during the term of this Agreement and shall automatically end upon its termination or expiry.

Any restriction beyond this period would require a separate non-compete agreement signed by both Parties.

4. Termination

Rights to Terminate

1. Customer may terminate this Contract and/or any open projects immediately for cause if the Content Creator fails to perform any of its obligations under this Contract or if Content Creator breaches any of the warranties provided herein and fails to correct such failure or breach to Customer's reasonable satisfaction within ten (10) calendar days (unless extended by Customer) following notice by Customer. Customer shall be entitled to seek and obtain all remedies available to it in law or in equity.

2. Upon termination of any project or work given Content Creator hereunder, Content Creator will immediately provide Customer with any and all work in progress or completed prior to the termination date. As Customer's sole obligation to Content Creator resulting from such termination, Customer will pay Content Creator an equitable amount as determined by Customer for the partially completed work in progress and the agreed to price for the completed Services and/or Deliverables provided and accepted prior to the date of termination.

3. Upon termination or expiration of this Contract or a project performed by Content Creator hereunder, whichever occurs first, Content Creator shall promptly return to Customer all materials and or tools provided by Customer under this Contract and all Confidential Information provided by Customer to Content Creator.

4. Any provision or clause in this Contract that, by its language or context, implies its survival shall survive any termination or expiration of this Contract.

5. Warranties

Content Creator warrants that:

1. the Services and Deliverables are original and do not infringe upon any third party's patents, trademarks, trade secrets, copyrights or other proprietary rights,

2. it will perform the Services hereunder in a professional and workmanlike manner,

3. the Deliverables Content Creator provides to Customer are new, of acceptable quality free from defects in material and workmanship and will meet the requirements and conform with any specifications agreed between the parties,

4. it has all necessary permits and is authorized to do business in all jurisdictions where Services are to be performed,

5. it will comply with all applicable federal and other jurisdictional laws in performing the Services,

6. it has all rights to enter into this Contract and there are no impediments to Content Creator's execution of this Contract or Content Creator's performance of Services hereunder.

6. Limitation of Liability

Except as set forth in this section below, in no event will either party be liable for any special, indirect, incidental, or consequential damages nor for loss of data, profits or revenue, cost of capital or downtime costs, nor for any exemplary or punitive damages, arising from any claim or action, incidental or collateral to, or directly or indirectly related to or in any way connected with, the subject matter of the agreement, whether such damages are based on contract, tort, statute, implied duties or obligations, or other legal theory, even if advised of the possibility of such damages.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any purported limitation or waiver of liability shall not apply to the contractor's obligation under the indemnification or confidential information sections of this agreement or either party's liability to the other for personal injury, death, or physical damage to property claims.

7. Inspection and Acceptance

Non-conforming services and deliverables

If any of the Services performed or Deliverables delivered do not conform to specified requirements, Customer may require the Content Creator to perform the Services again or replace or repair the non conforming Deliverables in order to bring them into full conformity with the requirements, at Content Creator's sole cost and expense.

When the defects in Services and/or Deliverables cannot be corrected by re-performance, Customer may: (a) require Content Creator to take necessary action, at Content Creator's own cost and expense, to ensure that future performance conforms to the requirements and/or (b) reduce any price payable under the applicable project to reflect the reduced value of the Services performed and/or Deliverables delivered by Content Creator and accepted by Customer.

If Content Creator fails to promptly conform the Services and/or Deliverables to defined requirements or specifications, or take action deemed by Customer to be sufficient to ensure future performance of the project in full conformity with such requirements, Customer may (a) by contract or otherwise, perform the services or subcontract to another Content Creator to perform the Services and reduce any price payable by an amount that is equitable under the circumstances and charge the difference in re-procurement costs back to Content Creator and/or (b) terminate the project and/or this Contract for default.

8. Insurance

Content Creator shall maintain adequate insurance coverage and minimum coverage limits for its business as required by any applicable law or regulation, including Workers' Compensation insurance as required by any applicable law or regulation, or otherwise as determined by Content Creator in its reasonable discretion. Content Creator's lack of insurance coverage shall limit any liability Content Creator may have under this Contract.

9. Miscellaneous

Assignment

Content Creator shall not assign any rights of this Contract or any other written instrument related to Services and/or Deliverables provided under this Contract, and no assignment shall be binding without the prior written consent of Customer. Subject to the foregoing, this Contract will be binding upon the Parties' heirs, executors, successors and assigns.

Governing law

The Parties shall make a good-faith effort to amicably settle by mutual agreement any dispute that may arise between them under this Contract. The foregoing requirement will not preclude either Party from seeking injunctive relief as it deems necessary to protect its own interests. This Contract will be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of France, excluding its choice of law rules.

Severability

The Parties recognize the uncertainty of the law with respect to certain provisions of this Contract and expressly stipulate that this Contract will be construed in a manner that renders its provisions valid and enforceable to the maximum extent possible under applicable law.

To the extent that any provisions of this Contract are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such provisions will be deleted from this Contract or modified so as to make them enforceable and the validity and enforceability of the remainder of such provisions and of this Contract will be unaffected.

Independent contractor

Nothing contained in this Contract shall create an employer and employee relationship, a master and servant relationship, or a principal and agent relationship between Content Creator and Customer. Customer and Content Creator agree that Content Creator is, and at all times during this Contract shall remain, an independent contractor.

Force majeure

Neither Party shall be liable for any failure to perform under this Contract when such failure is due to causes beyond that Party's reasonable control, including, but not limited to, acts of state or governmental authorities, pandemics, platform outages, acts of terrorism, natural catastrophe, fire, storm, flood, earthquakes, accident, and prolonged shortage of energy.

In the event of such delay the date of delivery or time for completion will be extended by a period of time reasonably necessary by both Content Creator and Customer. If the delay remains in effect for a period in excess of thirty days, Customer may terminate this Contract immediately upon written notice to Content Creator.

Entire contract

This document and all attached or incorporated documents contains the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes any previous understanding, commitments or agreements, oral or written. Further, this Contract may not be modified, changed, or otherwise altered in any respect except by a written agreement signed by both Parties.
